A ribbon cutting to welcome Linda's Vintage Treasures to Berlin Boro will take place on Saturday, July 13th at 11 AM. The GBBPA is pleased that Mayor and Council have accepted our invitation to officiate at the ribbon cutting ceremony for our newest member.

Linda Young, the owner, and Ted May, the "car literature guy" have been selling their eclectic collection of antiques, jewelry, whimsical décor and vintage car magazines primarily at antique shows and on-line. We would like to extend our congratulations and success to them at the Berlin store location. The store is located at: 137 White Horse Pike, Berlin, NJ.

We hope you will be able to join us for the ribbon cutting, after which, refreshments will be served.

To find out additional information of what Linda has been doing, in addition to selling her merchandise visit her blog: www.grandmalay.blogspot.com
