Old Business:

- Publicity/flyer created for Whims Brewery regarding their 1st Anniversary
- Explained why we did not participate in National Night Out - change was due to it not being held in one specific location and the focus was on First Responders.
- Attendance for the GBBPA to hand out flyers regarding our Fall Festival and Car Show, during the Police K9 Car Show, on Sunday, September 17th, was approved by the police coordinator Lt. Joshua Smith. Volunteers from the GBBPA would be appreciated.
- The schedule for the meeting dates was presented to the group and everyone agreed that we will meet every Thursday evening during the month of September. Several changes and coordination is required.
 - Additional emails have been sent out by our Secretary, Dina, to remind those that had not responded from last year.
- Fourth judge for the car show has been chosen and approved by Corky and Kevin
- Betty needs to follow-up with anyone serving alcohol regarding new guidelines by our insurance carrier
